Time: 12-2pm

Guest Speaker - Paul Aronsohn

Paul Aronsohn currently serves as New Jersey’s statewide Ombudsman for Individuals with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities and Their Families; appointed in April 2018. He serves as the administration’s lead advocate and ally for New Jersey residents in need of critical services and supports ranging from early childhood through adulthood. Mr. Aronsohn has held positions in both the public and private sectors, including the U.S. Department of State. Mr. Aronsohn’s understanding and passion for disability issues is rooted in his family experience as a sibling of individuals with special needs.

On March 11, 2022, it was announced that Mr. Aronsohn was appointed:
Member, President’s Committee for People with Intellectual Disabilities
